

TRANSITION PROGRAM (ARS 31-281) SUMMARY QUARTERLY REPORT

QUARTER 4, October 1 – December 31, 2005		TOTALS
		QTR 4	YTD
1. Number of participants who successfully completed the Transition Program Total eligible offenders who successfully attended designated Transition services in prison and/or in the community, received and completed an early supervised release up to 90 days, and then continued their term of community supervision. 2. Number of participants who did not successfully complete the Transition Program Total eligible offenders who successfully attended designated Transition services in prison and/or in the community, received an early supervised release, and then failed to complete the early Transition release (up to 90 days) by violating Conditions of Supervision. 3. Number of participants who successfully completed the Transition Program and their term of community supervision Total eligible offenders who successfully attended designated Transition services in prison and/or in the community, received and completed an early supervised release up to 90 days and were successfully discharged at the conclusion of their term of community supervision. They are no longer under the jurisdiction of ADC. 4. Bed days saved The total number of bed days saved during the quarter as a result of offenders being released who successfully completed the early 90 day supervised release component. 5. Bed day savings The total number of bed days saved during the quarter, multiplied by $17 per bed day savings as stipulated by ARS 31-285 B.		103	456
		17	35
		109	345
		7,696	32,347
		$130,832	$549,899

The compilation audit for 4th quarter resulted in correction of previous YTD totals resulting in 27 more bed days saved and $459 more bed day savings through the 3rd quarter.